

Spaces for whānau

Ongoing whānau involvement is important for supporting students' learning.

Engage whānau by having spaces they can access in the school – for example, a whānau room where families can meet with teachers, wait for their children, have a cup of tea or coffee, and access the internet.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
